Registration and Refund Policy

- One form for each attendee.
- Each paper must be registered and fully paid for. (Registration is meant for each paper not for each author; any author can use this registration to present a paper.)
- For their papers to be included in the conference proceedings, authors of accepted papers must register by April 10, 2004 (otherwise, their papers will NOT be published).
- Those registering after April 10, 2004 must pay the late registration fees.
- All Payments must be in US Dollars. All checks from banks outside China should be cashable in China. You can also send American Express checks (be sure that you sign the checks and make them payable to "CSCWD2004").
- A student rate attendee must provide a copy of his/her student ID or a letter from the related Department Head/Chair that states that the attendee is a full time student.
- Registration Fee will cover the followings:
 - the volume of the conference proceedings in which your paper is published in (other volumes of the conference proceedings can be purchased at the conference);
 - a CD containing all conference papers;
 - seven formal conference meals;
 - light breakfasts and refreshment breaks throughout the days of the conference;
 - access to all planned sessions of the conference;
 - a city tour in Xiamen.
- Refund Policy: Paid registrants (non-authors) who cannot attend, and do not send a substitute, are entitled to a refund of $200.00 if a request is received in writing on or before May 5, 2004. Registrants are liable for their full fees after that date (i.e., NO Refund will be made). There will be no refunds to authors.
